BREAZEALE, SACHSE & WILSON WELCOMES
THREE NEW ASSOCIATES TO THE BATON ROUGE OFFICE

Breazeale, Sachse and Wilson, L.L.P. is excited to welcome three new attorneys to the Baton Rouge location. All three are graduates from the Paul M. Hebert School of Law in Baton Rouge, Louisiana and have earned their Juris Doctorate.

Saul R. Newsome practices in the area of casualty litigation. He interned as a law clerk here at BSW where he engaged in legal research and draft memorandum in support of bills, motions and briefs. Saul also served in the United States Marine Corps.

Joseph J. Cefalu practices in the area of casualty litigation. Before becoming an associate, he was a law clerk where he analyzed legal issues, conducted research and drafted memorandums and pleadings in the practice area of casualty litigation, commercial litigation, banking and finance, environmental, healthcare and corporate.

Jacob E. Roussel joined the firm's construction and employment section. Prior to becoming an associate, Jacob interned at the Louisiana Court of Appeals First Circuit. His work consisted of researching legal issues for pending cases on the docket, performing primary and back-up record and citation checks for court opinions.

BSW was founded in Baton Rouge in 1928. Today, BSW has 75 attorneys serving the legal and business needs of people and companies throughout Louisiana. The firm has offices in Baton Rouge, New Orleans, and Covington. For more information, please contact Margaret A. Martin, 225-376-3640.
