EMILY GREY ELECTED TO THE AMERICAN HEALTH LAW ASSOCIATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Emily Black Grey, a partner in the Baton Rouge office of Breazeale, Sachse & Wilson, L.L.P. and manager of the firm's healthcare section, has been elected to the Board of Directors of the American Health Law Association (AHLA) for a three-year term. The AHLA is the nation's largest, nonpartisan, 501 (c) (3) educational organization devoted to legal issues in the health care field. It is to provide a collegial forum for interaction and information exchange to enable its members to serve their clients more effectively; to produce the highest quality non-partisan educational programs, products, and services concerning health law issues; and to serve as a public resource on selected health care legal issues.

Ms. Grey is also a frequent contributing author and speaker at AHLA's webinars and in-person programs. She is on the Annual Meeting program planning committee and is Co-Chair of the Online Dispute Resolution Working Group. She has served as Chair and Vice-Chair of the Hospitals and Health Systems Practice Group, as a member on the Health Law Curriculum Task Force, and on the Mentoring Committee.

BSW was founded in Baton Rouge in 1928. Today, BSW is a multi-specialty law firm with more than 70 attorneys serving the legal and business needs of people and companies throughout Louisiana. The firm has offices in Baton Rouge, New Orleans, and Monroe. For more information, please contact Margaret A. Martin, (225) 376-3640.
